Students in the third grade also participated in a dance workshop with performers from the Buglisi Dance Theatre in association with the Kaatsbaan International Dance Center in Tivoli.

Third-graders performed with the Buglisi dance group to a packed gymnasium.

Choreographer Jacquelyn Buglisi and her dancers taught students the art of telling a story through movement.

The first performance, titled "Rain," used movement and dance to evoke the many stages of a rain forest.

Students were very enthusiastic as both participants and observers of performances by this critically acclaimed dance troupe.
